Making a good marriage great, and a difficult one...doable!

Every 45 seconds in the United States a family is torn apart by divorce.
—National Center for Health Statistics

No matter how great or insignificant the irritations in your marriage, no two people connect seamlessly one hundred percent of the time. Nancy and Rich are no strangers to miscommunication and vast differences of...well...everything!

What God taught Nancy in and through her marriage brought the love back and made a difficult marriage doable. The changes God worked in her life when she gave up trying and asked for His help—they impacted Rich and brought back even “the tingles.”

You, too, can do more than just survive. Thrive in any marriage with a knowledge and practice of godly principles that Nancy not only teaches in HeartHope4Wives, but lives out day by day.

Yes, you can get the love back!

NANCY SEBASTIAN MEYER and Rich have been married over twenty-five years and live in Lancaster, Pennsylvania. Rich graciously allows Nancy to share from their marriage—to help yours! Learn more at www.nancysebastianmeyer.com.
